FORMATS

Minimal stories/Little big stories

Trailer: <https://vimeo.com/251188439>

Concept Format: 30-minute outreach program in which anonymous people tell us a personal story in a different outdoor location.

Everyone has a story that deserves to be told. In this program we will know those stories told by those who lived them in first person. The common thread will be the set itself on which they are placed to tell their story. It is a traveling set, very minimalist, just composed of a carpet, a bedside table and some decorative elements that reinforces the story that is going to be told.

The landscape itself completes the set, as it is never repeated, thus helping to create a geographical portrait of the environment in which the stories are told.

Bookworms

Ariel Fiore, a young writer who sells used books, has been working for years on an ambitious novel although he is far from finishing it. The external pressure and his deepest fears materialize in the ghost of an unsuccessful writer, which makes everything even more complicated. What Ari does not know is that the extraordinary stories and characters that inhabit his bookstore will be the key to unlocking his own narrative voice and a new way to understand life.

Bookworms

A used bookstore. A magical world. A transformation.
